VOL. V. NO. 139.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

MONONGAH A STAYER.

That long distance races are popular was demonstrated again at Harlem yesterday. Outside of the mile and a half event the card was an ordinary one, still the crowd was a large one and the spectators seemed to come especially to see a race run over the Derby distance.

Little or no interest was taken in the racing by the assemblage until the fourth event was called, and then every seat in the stand was occupied and a great crowd gathered in the center field. The horses in the race were of the selling plater class, but the fact that they were to "go the route" created a high degree of interest.

It was a high price selling race, and Monongah in for the top price was the favorite and was always about even money. He seemed to be the best and even money a royal price, but as Dr. Marks got most of the backing the ring could afford to stretch the odds on Monongah. As far as a contest was concerned the race proved a failure. Monongah went to the front soon after the start and remained there throughout. Beauchamp rode the gelding and "placed" him with good judgment in front. Once on the back stretch Dr. Marks moved up rapidly and for an instant seemed to have a chance, and such exclamations as "Monongah's beaten," "The Doctor's got him" and "Watch him stop," could be heard on all sides. But Beauchamp had a lot up his sleeve, and on the far turn spurted away from Dr. Marks and the others as he pleased. At the head of the stretch Monongah was two lengths in the lead, and held this advantage to the end, winning hard held. Dr. Marks, driving and staggering, was two lengths in front of Benamela.

Egbart, who raced and won in H. T. Griffin's colors the last time out, was recently purchased by "Bishop" Poole and in the third race ran in his name. He was backed from 3 to 1 down to 2½ to 1, and won handsomely for his new owner. McNickle rode the ancient son of Egmont-Jennie Doty and handled him to perfection. He waited upon Lucky Star and Newgatherer until the stretch was reached and then came on about his business, winning away off.

Jockey Beauchamp seems to have the first call among the owners and his pick of the mounts at present and is riding in excellent form, but the first thing he knows he will throw a race away for someone and consequently lose his prestige. This same Beauchamp went to sleep on What or Lou at Harlem last fall and let Rutter with Cherry Leaf steal a race away from him. Yesterday he began to ease up Serrano at the head of the stretch and almost threw the race away on him. He also drew a finish fine with Clay Poynter Thursday, and came within an ace of being beaten out by Rifle.

Close finishes arouse great enthusiasm in a crowd, but an unfinished jockey such as Beauchamp will do better by winning as far off as he can.

Serrano was heavily backed to beat Hugh Penny in the second race and that "Bill" Redmon had him fit and good was clearly demonstrated. The horse was never worse than third and always had the race in hand and had Beauchamp so chosen could have won away off by himself.

Presiding Judge Hamilton has his troubles and until the stand is built so that the crowd and the judge are on somewhere near the same angle they will continue. A lot of noise was raised over the decision in the first race which Olive Order won by a good half length from Mont Eagle. The latter was the favorite and from the grandstand seemed to have won, but Hamilton, who rode him, made the same mistake that Beauchamp will make sooner or later if he don't adopt a different system. Hamilton thought he had the race won and quit riding, but the first thing he knew up came Olive Order on the inside and stole the race. The crowd, which was in no position whatever to see the finish, thought that Mont Eagle had won, and when the judges hung out Olive Order's number was greatly surprised.

There never was an angle more deceiving than the one from the grandstand to the wire and this makes it bad for the presiding judge. He, and he only, is in a position to see, and when a crowd makes a noise like that which was raised yesterday, it displays very bad judgment.

Beginning today trains on the Lake street elevated, returning from the track, will stop only at the following stations: Fifty-second, Forty-eighth and Fortieth streets, Homan avenue, California avenue, Oakley avenue, Ashland avenue, Halsted street and Canal street. Of course they will stop at all stations on the loop.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Attention is called to the sale of thoroughbred yearlings to be conducted by the Fasig-Tipton Company at Madison Square Garden, New York, Monday, June 19. The sale is scheduled to take place at night, when fifty-eight choicely bred yearlings, the property of Col. W. S. Barnes, Mrs. Byron McClelland and other Kentucky breeders will be led out under the electric lights for inspection and sale to the highest bidder. Colonel Barnes says his consignment is about the best ever sent out from Melbourne Stock Farm and that is saying a great deal. Catalogues can be obtained by applying to the Fasig-Tipton Company, New York.

The American Horse Exchange, of which Mr. F. M. Ware is manager and treasurer, will conduct a number of the most important sales of thoroughbred yearlings of the year this month. Their first sale of the season will be at the Sheephead Bay sales paddocks Friday, June 16, on which date the yearlings of the McGrathiana, Runnymede and Oakwood farms will be disposed of. The sale is likely to be one long to be remembered from the fact that twenty-five Hanover colts are in the McGrathiana consignment and that many of them will bring such long prices as make the sale sensational is assured in advance. The Hanover colts are chestnuts from Arragon, Squeeze, Maria Stoops, Rhody Gale, Tidbit, Lida Stanhope, Theora, Jennie Lee, Hot Scotch, Bad Luck and Lizzie Lee, bays from Bessie Hinkley, Reveal, Confidence, Colleen Rhue, Retrieve, Mrs. Manton, Vera, Anna Gray and Ida Walton and Browns from Jersey Girl, Help and Devise. The last of the Hanovers will be sold next year so that owners with long purses have only two chances left to secure another Hamburg or Ben Holliday and they will be sure to make the most of their limited opportunities to secure specimens of the progeny of the famous dead sire.

Other sales to be conducted by the same establishment are of the Belle Meade yearlings June 20 and 21. The Ellerslie yearlings June 26 and the Dixiana, Ashland, Mere Hill and others June 30.

Mose Goldblatt, the Cincinnati horseman, and Jockey R. Brophy, a colored rider, were suspended for the Latonia meeting for fighting outside the track after the last race on Tuesday. Brophy made the charge to the judges that Goldblatt had asked him to pull Little Land, who ran second in the last race Tuesday. An investigation developed that Brophy was romancing, for Goldblatt bet $100 on Little Land, and produced evidence to that effect. It seems that Brophy and Goldblatt became involved in a quarrel on Tuesday over money matters, which ended by the latter whipping the jockey. The jockey, in order to get even, it is presumed, then made the above charge to the Latonia judges. For fighting, the judges suspended both from the privileges of the track for the balance of the meeting, and Brophy was given a lecture about making false charges.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A gentlemen's race came off at Latonia recently. It was largely patronized by fashionable people and voted a howling success by all concerned. Ed Hopper likes to cater to racing enterprises that make people think well of Latonia so he has devised a new race for gentlemen riders, particulars whereof are thus set forth in a Cincinnati newspaper.

"Another 'gentleman's' race will be given at Latonia and it promises to eclipse in interest that given at the over-the-river track recently. It will be a tri-state race, two gentlemen from each of the three states—Virginia, Kentucky and Ohio—taking part in it. A couple of members of the Warrenton Hounds Club of Virginia, Messrs. Hove and Maddux, were the guests of a prominent railroad official of this city at Louisville on Derby Day and on their return home they stopped over in Cincinnati and were entertained by President Sherlock. They are enthusiastic horsemen, and when President Sherlock, in the course of conversation on racing matters, suggested that at some time during the present meeting at Latonia a race for gentlemen riders might be arranged and invited them in such an event to come here and take part in it, they readily assented.

When the other 'cup' race was arranged for it was thought best to make it exclusively for members of the Cincinnati Riding Club, and, of course, the Virginia gentlemen could not ride in it. That race was such a success that President Sherlock has suggested to the Latonia management the advisability of giving another. His suggestion of a 'tri-state gentlemen's race' has met with approval, and he has been authorized to arrange for it. Messrs. Hove and Maddux have been communicated with on the subject, and the former has written that they will be pleased to do their part toward making the proposed race a success, and that they can be here to ride either Saturday, the 17th inst., or the following Tuesday. They will represent Virginia in the race. Mr. Zeke Arnold, a nephew of Brent Arnold, the well-known railroad official, will be one of the riders from Kentucky. The other gentlemen to represent Kentucky and the two who will represent Ohio remain to be chosen."

The announced intention of the Whitney-Paget stable not to start Jean Beraud again until the Realization is really satisfactory. It will be a great triumph if the His Highness colt can be returned a winner over such a distance as a mile and five furlongs. It will take a long, steady, careful preparation to give him a chance, and the hope of success would have been decreased by every race he might have been called upon to run in the meantime. Mr. Whitney seems bent on cornering the horse market, which is a pretty hard game for any man to play, however much money he may have, so long as horses are not mere racing machines, but are subject to infirmities and change of form. Still, it would be a notable triumph for the Westbury Stable if it could capture the Suburban with Tillo and the Realization with Jean Beraud.—New York Journal.

LOCAL RACE MEETINGS.

Today ends the successful two weeks of racing at Harlem and Monday will be the first day of the Chicago Jockey Club's initial meeting at Hawthorne. Despite the unfavorable weather during a portion of the past two weeks, the attendance at Harlem was such as to afford distinct encouragement for the future. By the time Hawthorne's fortnight shall have elapsed it is promised the new grandstand will be completed, a circumstance that will add greatly to the comfort of patrons of the track.

Meanwhile Hawthorne is ready. The grandstand, stables, other buildings and the track have all been put in order. The familiar figure of Edward Corrigan will be missed, but as of yore Harry Kuhl will be found in the secretary's office. The full register of track officials, all men of experience in their departments, is: Presiding judge, J. H. Rees; associate judge and secretary, Harry Kuhl; assistant secretary, W. R. Letcher; starter, Richard Dwyer; manager, Frank A. McEvoy; clerk of scales, H. F. Moore; paddock and patrol judge, R. Tozer; official timer, George Farnsworth; entry clerk, Harry White.

All the horses that have been racing at Harlem will be available, while many others are expected from Cincinnati and St. Louis. H. B. Durham with 14 horses; M. Jordan, 8; C. R. McLean, 6; W. Fields, 12; R. Tucker, 10; L. S. Williams, 5; H. J. Scoggan, 7; C. E. Mahone, 5; D. Waldo, 4, and Wills & Co., 3, are among those who have applied for stable room. Western turfmen like to race their horses in Chicago, and by the time the fervid days of July arrive about all worth having will be here. The local outlook is all that could be hoped for under present conditions.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

There is a big, good looking steeplechaser quartered at Gravesend who has yet to make his bow before the public. He is a brown horse, Dungannon, by Order out of Palmflower. Not—as might be supposed from the name of his sire—bred in this country, but imported from England. He is in charge of Harry Graham, who used to train the horses of Frank Beard, and is receiving a very nice, careful preparation. Already he has been returned a winner three or four times in England, so his performances here will give us a line on the jumpers of the other side. Graham is waiting very patiently with him as he wants to get him well acclimated.—Morning Telegraph.

Too much familiarity on the part of our wealthy owners toward their jockeys, which in recent years has become so common, has brought about a decided laxness in discipline and has done much toward ruining many of our most promising lightweights.—The Horseancier.

On May 26 Linnale, by Macduff, dropped a chestnut colt by Wagner. This foal is an own brother to Cleophus, and resembles her very much, having a blaze and four white legs. He is the property of S. P. Lancaster, Bardstown, Ky.

Before Secretary Gratz Hanly left Tuesday night for Toronto it was settled by him and Manager Fowler that the Newport track would give a fall meeting, commencing September 2 and continuing twenty-six days.

Jockey Fred Seal's admirers are commenting on his improved seat on a horse. He no longer bobs up and down, but sits close, effecting a compromise between his old style and the new Sloan school.

It is likely that Green B. Morris will engage Odum to ride for him next year at a salary of $10,000.

Winner—B. f. by Order—India.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. They were all in a heap and made a pretty finish. Olive Order came with a tremendous rush on the inside. In fact, Henson stole the race. Hamilton evidently thought he had everything beaten a hundred yards out and foolishly quit riding Mont Eagle. The latter was the best and only Hamilton's carelessness cost him the race. Huronia ran a good race and should win soon. Jeff had no excuses. He got away well and was well ridden. Inlook got away flying and showed a lot of speed. The weight, though, told on him and he quit badly in the stretch. Mark Creation. He ran a better race than the figures show.
Olive Order, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Mont Eagle, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Huronia, show, 2 to 1. Jeff, place, 3 to 2; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. h. by Fonso—Janet.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next two were doing their best. Serrano was heavily played and as the race was run, was much the best. He was under restraint all the way. Beauchamp became careless at the head of the stretch and eased the horse out. This almost cost him the race, for Hugh Penny came through with a rush on the inside and put Serrano to a mild drive at the end. Hugh Penny seemed stiff and sore going to the post. He warmed out of it, however, and about ran his race. Prince Blazes ran to the notch. He is a consistent performer. The others were outclassed and hardly worth noticing.
Scratched—12483 Clifton B., 105.
Overweights—Onalaska, 3 pounds.
Serrano, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Hugh Penny, place, out. Prince Blazes, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. h. by Egmont—Jennie Doty.
Post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second hand ridden. Third and fourth driving hard. Egbart is in rare form. He was the best and never extended. McNickie had a good hold of his head and placed him intelligently all the way. When he let the old horse down he passed Newgatherer and Lucky Star as though they were stationary. The latter had no excuses. He will do better at three-quarters. Newgatherer ran right to his mark. He is good at present. Simon D., off poorly, ran a good race. He finished very strong. Piccola was kicked at the post and badly out on the hook.
Scratched—12539 Whirmantiline, 97; 12455 Mary Kinsella, 97; 12458 Moroni, 108.

Winner—Br. g. by Spendthrift—The Maid.
Off at the first break to a perfect start. Won easily; second whipped out. Monongah as the race was run was much the best. He was in a soft spot and won as he pleased. He is a horse that needs strong handling and Beauchamp rode him to perfection. Dr. Marks about ran his race. He was tiring and out to the last ounce at the finish. Benamela ran better than he has on any of his recent appearances. Cochise might just as well have stayed in the stable.
Scratched—(12562) Ivy Pointer, 108.
Monongah, place, out. Dr. Marks, place, 2 to 5. Benamela, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—B. g. by Apache—Lina.
Off at the first break to a good start. Won handily after a mild drive on the turn. Native Son was in a good position all the way and came away cleverly through the stretch. Carter rode him well. Ostra had no excuses. She got a flying start and always had a clear path, but quit almost to a walk after going the first half. Defender II. ran a fair race. Hanlight is of no present account. Only the first three were contenders.
Scratched—12394 Land Lily, 102; 12496 Loyal Girl, 102.
Native Son, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Ostra, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Defender II., show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Blk. f. by Silver Fox—Martha Washington.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. It was a driving finish and Martha Fox barely got up in time. This filly ran an exceptionally game race and was powerfully ridden, too. Hamilton got her out off at the start, and at the half mile ground it seemed that she did not have a possible chance to win. On the turn she bumped her way through and came with a rush at the end. Nutt was clearly out-finished by Hamilton. Rosa Clay made a strong bid at the head of the stretch, but quit in the closing drive. Heroics was bumped and interfered with considerably in the stretch. Beauchamp claimed foul, but it was not allowed. Duty had a lot of speed. Pat Cleburne had none at all. Scratched—12483 Josephine B., 108; 12514 Ernest Wiles, 110.

Martha Fox, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Free Hand, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Rosa Clay, show, 3 to 1.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.
